Property Description:

Step into a piece of history with this extraordinary loft, crafted by renowned architect Freddy Romero in the picturesque hills of Gringo Gulch. Long before Vallarta transformed into the vibrant destination it is today, this architectural gem was conceived, offering an unmatched sense of space and light. This home is not just a dwelling; it's a celebration of distinctive design and timeless features. While modern updates have been thoughtfully incorporated, many of the original elements have been preserved, maintaining their enduring charm. Ideal for those who truly appreciate architecture, this expansive, open space boasts an inviting upper loft that serves as a serene bedroom with an ensuite bathroom, along with a cozy den perfect for watching TV or working from home.
